These 3 stones were there when I was a child but only Cyrus remains.

Grandmother told me that when she and granddaddy Jesse Edwin Sikes moved back to the home place after the War Between the States, the 3 stones were stacked as doorsteps. She returned them to the Cemetery as Grandfather remembered them. He told her that prior to their moving to Gibson Co. there was other stones, also some Sand stones.

VS. Decree for partition

Martha E. Askew, Jennie Askew, Thomas Askew, Alexander W. Askew, Vivian Askew, Thomas Tomlinson, James Tomlinson, Wyatt R. Tomlinson and Georgia Ann Tomlinson.

On this 6th day of November 1866, came on this cause to be further heard, before the County Court of Madison County, upon subpoenas and copies served upon all the defendants and their guardian ad litem, except Georgia Ann Tomlinson and Wyatt R. Tomlinson, and upon order of publication made as to said Georgia A. and Wyatt R. and upon answers of all the defendants; and it appearing that David Watford late of the County of Madison died intestate in the year 1865, owning a large real estate in said county, Some Seventeen hundred acres, more or less; And it appearing that Alexander Askew, and Augustus Askew have been appointed his administrators by this Court, and that there are personal assets sufficient to pay the debts without resorting to the lands and it appearing that the petitioners and defendants are his only heirs at law and that they are entitled to his real estate in the manner, and in the proportions herein after set forth, that is to say; that his real estate is to be divided into three principal Shares of equal amount in quality and quantity; One of which shares goes to Martha A. Askew, daughter of the intestate and wife of Alexander Askew; One to Mary P. Askew daughter of the intestate and wife of Aaron O. Askew, and one to the heirs at law of Elizabeth Ann Askew, the deceased wife of Augustus Askew and who was the daughter of said David Watford. The heirs at law of said Elizabeth Ann are as follows: 1st John C. Askew entitled to one ninth of her share; 2nd William Askew entitled to the same; 3rd Henrietta Greer wife of James N. Greer entitled to the same; 4th Mariatta E. Askew entitled to the same; 5th Jennie Askew entitled to the same; 6th Thomas Askew entitled to the same; 7th Alexander W. Askew entitled to the same; 8th Vivian Askew, son of David Askew dec'd and grandson of Elizabeth Ann, entitled to one ninth; 9th The children of Rachel Tomlinson deceased, the daughter of said Elizabeth Ann Askew, four in number to wit: Thomas Tomlinson, James Tomlinson, Georgia Ann Tomlinson and Wyatt R. Tomlinson, who together are entitled to one ninth: And it appearing that the defendants through their guardians ad litem (they not being regular guardians) here answered the petition; and it appearing that said parties are entitled to have said land partitioned between them according to this interest as above set out; it is therefore ordered and decreed that Hugh Montgomery, James Blackman, William M. Tidwell, William Honner and David Honner, all citizens of said county and free holders therein be appointed commissioners, who with Richard T. McKnight as Surveyor, after being first duly sworn shall proceed to survey and measure said lands of said David Watford, and value the same. They shall then divide the same between all the parties in quality and quantity, giving to each heir his, or her portion of such division and assignment as is practicable and can be made without manifest injury to any of the heirs: If the same cannot be so divide the same into three principal shares of equal value in quality and quantity, assigning one share to Mattie A. Askew, wife of Alexander; One Share to Mary P. Askew, wife of Aaron O. Askew, and one share to the heirs of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Askew deceased. They will then report to the Court whether the Share assigned to the heirs of Elizabeth A. Askew, can be fairly and advantageously divided amongst her heirs, without a sale; and whether it would be manifestly to their advantage that it should be sold for partition. If it can be so divided they will proceed to do so, and if cannot they will report the fact. They will return a fair plat to the Court, of the Survey and divisions with their report. The concurrence of a majority of said five commissioners in the report shall be sufficient.

The Court adjourned until 10 oclock tomorrow morning

A. S. Rogers, Clerk

Note by Mr. Blanks:

The above mentioned David Watford was born ca 1788 in Bertie County North Carolina and moved to Madison County Tennessee prior to 1840. David was the son of William Watford who fought in the Rev. War.

This letter was written by a confederate soldier, S. G. Bayless and is submitted to Family Findings by Mrs. Houston Sipes, 68 Carlisle Dr., Jackson, Tennessee. The letter was found in the Kicks family bible now in the possession of Mrs. Christine Primm Gayne, 98 A avenue, Warren Arkansas.

Wilmington, Ark., April 25, 1865, after my regards to you all.

Dear Mattie. The news conflicts. (both good & bad). this may be a strange way of writing to you, but sounds best to have Mattie at the beginning & ending of every _____ well, no use talking tis so everywhere. The twilight passed (sp) dawn today. My horse looks well as could expect. The river higher than any time last winter. Plenty in store but tell no more. Hope this may find you and yours well as it leaves me so. S. G. Bayless.

29th. Sweet Mattie. Nothing of interest to write you. I am doing the best I can for us. I saw a pretty lady today but don't know who she is. (then I thought of M-----) I have gotten over my cold at last. Oh yes! I forgot, I patched my pants today, I thought tomorrow preaching day, but a week yet. I am trying to reconcile myself to whatever binds me. I don't know whether I shall see you all any more. Though it would be a great pleasure to me to be with you. however, the prospect is good at present. I dream, yes, I saw you last night in great tears for me, when I placed my arm around you & tried to console you. Tell Martha & baby to be good children. You be good too & God help you all I ask. S. G. Bayless.

30th. Dear Mattie, I hardly know how to express myself to you this evening (will not try) however, I am well at present, thank God, hope you & family are well. News conflicting, bad at best. I have more to talk of than I can remember or have an affection to reveal. Please excuse me this evening. I caught a turtle today to have him for dinner tomorrow. God bless you all. yours yet. S. G. Bayless.

May 1st. And still alive and well. Thank God you are well. I had my turtle for dinner, it was first rate (it was at Mrs. (continued next page) Smith's, she had other good things.) I have taken my shoes up some by a gore from the vamp. It is confirmed that Lincoln is dead. Rumors say that Lee is not captured. You may just turn over and read on as I am in a little better mood for writing this evening I will tell you the dream I had last night. (I fear something is wrong at home) I saw (in my sleeping course) Isaby consigned to the tooms! which caused our hearts to melt & we fell to the ground, on the return from which place, you leaned on me for support. When we got back a great many friends came in to see us. The young ladies (being great friends of yours) saw the affection I had for you and yours and hugged me as a token that they approved of your choice, & love for you and yours. I have sent you one letter since I left you but have received none, but desirous to get one. My horse is improving slowly. The Lieut. & I went out in the garden, Mrs. Brown and the negroes all had a big time this evening, digging, hoeing, raking & scratching of all sorts of doings (of the kind). Flew very bad here. The Neutral Battery now planted at Wilmington. I shall have to run the blockade to get home. God be with me and all. And may we be faithful & meet again. I long to see you all, your loving S. G. Bayless. 2nd. Mattie, I have nothing very interesting to write you this evening. I have been a visiting and the boys don't know where. It is said that Johnson is surrounded by the 'Yankees. I hardly know what to think of the times, they are dark in deed, but I think I should like to see you all again and spend some time with you at home. It is late, I have nothing from you yet. Looking I send this to you. S. G. Bayless To all ours. 3rd. Mattie, I received a little note from you by Mr. Newton for the first time since I left. I wrote to you by Mr. Hanner, it is strange you did not get it. I have great hopes of being on that side soon. I am glad to hear from you all. Wish you could write more often for I love to get letters from you. Still rumors of foreign intervention. I dreamed of success last night hope all will be well yet. Mattie if the horses are not doing well you would do well perhaps to graze one while the other plows. do the best you can for yourself. Tell Baby to be a good boy and I'll come to see him one day so I close by sending my best wishes to you & all my friends. May the God of Heaven preserve you and keep you & me. Your loving husband,

MASON'S GROVE CEMETERY

Located in District 17 Madison Co. Tenn.

George M. Teddlington
 son of William & Adeline Teddlington
 d. 27 July 1876

Only marker available. Very difficult to locate. Cemetery is immediately a cross road from former location of "Old Rodger's Place" where Irvin N. & Mary P. Milam lived in 1931 or 1932. Located just past McAbee's Store (Long since closed) on Beech Bluff Road approximately 15 miles from Jackson.
 Located by Wilson G. Milam and Robert N. Milam 15 August 1970.

Per Wilson G. Milam, Mr. Teddlington's descendent stated that Zachariah Hogan grandfather of Wilson G. Milam and father of Alice C. Hogan is buried here in an unmarked grave. Alson, Wilson G. states that this cemetery was "laid out" by the Methodist church and that there was a school house directly down the hollow where Alice C. went to school.

ASKEW-WATFORD FAMILIES

The Askew and Watford families were originally from Bertie County North Carolina. David Watford (1788-1865) and his wife Rachel Emily Eason (1794-1858) moved to Madison County Tennessee about 1839 as indicated by the early deeds of Madison County. David left three married daughters behind in Bertie County. These three daughters had all married Askews who were closely related. Elizabeth Ann Watford (1813-1864) married James Augustus Askew (1808-1868); Martha A. Watford (1815-1877) married Alexander Askew (1810-1872); and Mary Priseilla Watford (1817-1875) married Aaron O. Askew (1800- ?). Aaron O. Askew and Alexander Askew were brothers and the sons of John Askew who died in Bertie County in 1829 and left a will naming his heirs. James Augustus Askew was a 1st cousin to Aaron and Alexander and his father was probably David Askew. The Askew lines are assumed to be as follows as supported from data from Bertie County wills:

James Augustus and Alexander Askew moved to Madison County Tennessee about 1845 apparently following their father-in-law who was already in that area. Aaron O. Askew apparently remained in North Carolina until his death. His widow and all her children moved to Madison County Tennessee about 1870. The Askew families and David Watford lived in the areas around Spring Creek, Oakfield, and Norwood. Some of their descendants are still in this area of Madison County as of 1973.
